

BOLERIUM BOOKS

Fighting Commodity Fetishism
With Commodity Fetishism
Since 1981

BOLERIUM BOOKS

Bolerium Books specializes in American social movements — Labor and Radical History, African American Studies, Hispanics in the US, Gay and Lesbian Studies, Asian American History, and the Spanish Civil War — and carries a large stock of out-of-print books in other areas as well.

At our website, www.bolerium.com, you can browse a complete list of our current stock by the speciality of your choice. You can also sign up at the website for catalogs and for free periodic e-mail notifications of new arrivals in any of 400 topics, from Africa to the Zamarano Club.

You can browse our stock in person from noon to 6 PM every day except Sunday. We are located in San Francisco's Mission District at 2141 Mission St., #300 (third floor), between 17th & 18th Streets on the east side, easily accessible by car, bus or the nearby 16th St. BART Station.

Phone: 1-800-326-6353 (US and Canada)

415-863-6353, e-mail: reds@bolerium.com

COLOR DRAWING: © 2011 SPAIN RODRIGUEZ, DESIGN: JAY KINNEY

Bolerium Books - 2141 Mission St., Ste 300, San Francisco, CA 94110 - www.bolerium.com - 1-800-326-6353 (US and Canada) - 415-863-6353